Other European White

WHITE PINOT NOIR	2014	£31.50
Albourne Estate, Sussex

The 'White' Pinot Noir is made from gently pressing whole bunches of the red Pinot Noir grape - that sort of skin contact explains the delicate pink hue, also the hints of cherry blossom, rose and red summer fruits which come out as it warms.

FRITZ'S RIESLING	2014	£21.50
Fritz Hasselbach, Nackenheim, Germany

Deliciously moreish. Well-balanced, crisp minerality and sweetness make an attractive medium wine presenting fresh flavours of peach, apple and rose blossom.

PINOT GRIGIO - Flavorelli	2014	£21.50
Veneto, Italy

Pinot Grigio IGT claims hints of wild flowers and acacia, I just think of it as a dry but rounded refreshing drink!

GAVI	2014	£24.00
La Battistina Estate, Gavi

From the Cortese grape. This wine has a very distinctive character. Soft lush ripe fruit on the nose but the palate is light, dry with a crisp acidity.

LUGANA	2013	£29.00
Giovanni Avanzi, Sirmione

Well structured Verdicchio from around Lake Garda

PIGNOLETTO FRIZZANTE NV	2014	£24.00
Gruppo Cevico, Emilia Romagna
Fresh and frizzante rather than sparkling because secondary fermentation takes place in a tank under less pressure than Prosecco. It makes a splendid and eminently quaffable aperitif. My tip for a sunny day - should any come along!
SOAVE CLASSICO	2012	£25.00
Cantina da Bolla, Verona
Classic Soave with that distinctive hint of almond on the finish and age giving it a full and rounded mouthfeel.

VIURA	2013	£22.00
Finca Antigua, La Mancha, Spain
Clean and fresh but not characterless. It has had 5 months over its lees - a good alternative for Picpoul de Pinet or Muscadet.
ALBARINO - Orballo	2014	£27.50
Rias Baixas, Spain
Enticingly aromatic with subtle notes of peach and apricot with crisp citrus acidity.

PEGOES BRANCO	2014	£24.00
Cooperativa Santo Isidro de Pegoes, Setubal, Portugal
New on my list this equal blend of two Portuguese varietals with Chardonnay and Verdelho really made an impression at a recent tasting. Its full name - Colheita Selecccionada Adega de Pegoes Branco is as much of a mouthfull as the wine itself!

ASSYRTIKO - Wild Ferment 2014 £37.00
Gaia Estate, Santorini, Greece
Will it? Won't it? Leaving a wine to its own devices allowing natural yeasts to start fermentation is a risky business. Made from 80 year old ungrafted vines growing in the volcanic soil of Santorini this is worth the risk.

'DONGO' DRY FURMINT 2013 £31.60
St Tamas Winery, Mad, Tokaji, Hungary
Think lemon, quince, pears and flint or white fruit, citrus and volcanic minerality, rounded off by 10 months in oak. Bold but elegant, with a very long finish.
